ALL MEXICAN FACTIONS DENY DISSENTIONS BUT CARRY LITTLE WEIGHT

Washington Belief, However, is That Breach Probable in Both Parties.

SITUATION NO CLEARER

Wilson Not as Optimistic Now Over Conditions as He Was Week Ago.

Americans in Yaqui Valley are Urged to Leave There.

Washington, June 22.—Denials of friction in the Carranza ranks and of dissention among Villa leaders were made today by the Mexican agencies here. The belief prevailed in certain quarters, however, that the breach between General Obregon and Carranza had not been healed and the departure of General Felipe Angeles from the camp of General Valla at this time was an important military, if not political, loss.

General Angeles did not pass through here en route to Boston. Information is meagre as to his plans, though rumors are current that he really is in the United States to discuss with prominent Mexicans plans for the inauguration of a new movement that would have as its nucleus the Villa-Zapata troops.

According to official information Carranza refused to take the advice of General Obregon and accepted the resignation of some of the cabinet ministers, whose retention was insisted upon by Obregon. Other advices say that General Pablo Gonzales, the Carranza commander marching against Mexico City, who was ordered to halt until Carranza reorganized his cabinet, has gone ahead and is now reported within a few miles of the capital. Communications behind him to Vera Cruz is cut. This development is regarded as ominous in official quarters. The Carranza authorities at Vera Cruz claim the lines were cut by the Zapatistas, but other information received by the United States government indicates that General Gonzales cut his own communications.

Wilson Not So Optimistic.

President Wilson indicated to callers today that the Mexican situation did not seem to be any clearer than it has been, and that he was not as optimistic as he was a week ago about possibilities of an agreement between the factions. The United States has made it clear, however, that it will give every opportunity for a settlement by the factions before deciding on the second step in its recently announced policy.

The departure of Rear Admiral Caperton and his flagship, the cruiser Washington, from Vera Cruz for Cape Haitien, today, left Commander Luke McNamee on the gunboat Sacramento in command of the American naval forces on the gulf coast of Mexico. Commander McNamee has five gunboats in his squadron and two more are on the way to join him at Vera Cruz, the Marietta, from Boston, and the Machias, en route from Key West.

The determination of Secretary Daniels to send Admiral Caperton and the only large warship in the gulf waters to Haiti served to set at rest reports that the admiral wanted the fleet on the Mexican coast heavily reinforced.

It is stated that Admiral Caperton asked for additional gunboats, as the smaller vessels are more serviceable in watchings ports.

REASSURING ADVICES.

Received by Navy Department Last Night From Admiral Howard.

Washington, June 22.—Reassuring advices concerning the situation in Yaqui Valley, Mexico, where Indians have been threatening American settlers, came to the Navy Department tonight from Admiral Howard, at Guaymas. The admiral's message, dated today and sent by wireless to San Diego, Cal., from the cruiser Colorado, said:

"Have called upon General Leyva. He states that 200 troops have been sent to the assistance of construction train and that he now has telephonic communication with the valley and all is quiet."

Early in the day Admiral Howard had reported holding a conference yesterday with General Leyva, commandant of Guaymas, who, while advising Americans to leave the Yaqui Valley, said he had 1,500 Sonora State troops ready to operate against the Indians and protect foreigners whether they remained on their properties or left the country.

Americans Urged to Leave.

Admiral Howard sent by wireless to the Navy Department late today a statement presented to him by the Mexican military commandant at Guaymas suggesting that Americans leave the Yaqui valley, but promising to protect the mif they remained or to escort them if they departed. The commandant said a landing of American marines would be likely to "cause Americans trouble all along the coast."

The following official statement was made public at the Navy Department:

"Admiral Howard has forwarded to the Nevy Department the following statement presented him by General Leyva, military commandant, Guaymas, Mexico, on board the Colorado, yesterday:

"'Whereas, Americans were invited to exploit Yaqui valley, there then existed no revolution and adequate garrisons were established along Yaqui valley, and Indians were held in subjection, but now, taking all phases into

FRENCH FLOAT BIG LOAN IN NEW YORK

LIBRARY of CONGRESS WASHINGTON, D. C.

Morgan & Company Confirm Much Discussed Credit.

ROTHSCHILDS BACK IT

Will Hardly Amount to More Than $50,000,000—Secured by High Class American Bonds Owned by French.

New York, June 22.—Confirmation of the much discussed French credit by American bankers was received today when J. P. Morgan & Company announced the virtual completion of a one-year loan to the Paris branch of the Rothschilds, the latter acting for the French government and the Bank of France as well as a syndicate of French bankers.

The amount of the loan and its interest yield are yet to be determined, but it is estimated that the sum is not likely to exceed $50,000,000 at approximately 5 per cent. It will be secured by collateral in the form of high grade railway bonds to be placed with Morgan & Company. These bonds include some of the censor securities of America's premier roads, of which many millions of dollars worth are owned by French investors.

To a large extent these securities are negotiable only in francs, that proviso having been made at the time of their sale to French interests. This will not affect the character of the collateral, however, should the bonds be offered to investors in this country, inasmuch as the especial clause may be cancelled by private arrangement between the contracting parties.

The proceeds of the loan will be used by the French government for payment here of heavy commercial obligations incurred in the purchase of war supplies and food stuffs. It is believed that the outcome of this transaction will tend materially to relax the strained credit conditions between this center and Paris and bring some ease to the London exchange market which recently has been the financial medium between New York and Paris.

WASHINGTON'S ATTITUDE.

Government Officials Make No Comment on New York Announcement.

Washington, June 22.—Government officials made no comment tonight on the new $50,000,000 loan for France announced in New York through J. P. Morgan & Company. The attitude of the State Department on foreign loans as explained in official statements is neither to approve nor disapprove such transactions, since, under international and domestic law, there is no legal objection to their flotation.

The President early in the war declared that loans, although not unlawful, were inconsistent with the true spirit of neutrality. Later this was interpreted in a letter from the Secretary of State to Chairman Stone of the Senate foreign relations committee as applying to loans which were intended to be sold through popular subscription, or those in which large quantities of gold would be shipped out of the United States. No objection, it was stated, was held against so-called credit loans by individual bankers, whereby belligerents place in the United States loans for the purchase of food and war supplies.

Seattle, Wash., June 22.—"Wilson Day" designated by a mayor's proclamation was observed here today. At a mass meeting addresses were made expressing confidence in the President's conduct of international affairs.

DID WASHINGTON HINT TO THE BRITISH LION?

That Japanese in Europe Would be Undesirable.

Newspaper at The Hague Asserts That Unofficial Hint Given England Caused Return Home of Japanese Army in Manchuria.

The Hague, via London, June 22.—The Handelsblad today asserts that Japan was prevented from sending 300,000 troops to Europe by an unofficial hint to Great Britain from Washington that such an expedition would be undesirable.

The newspaper declares that a Japanese army of that strength was landed in Manchuria, where it was exercising preparatory to departure for the European battlefield, but that Great Britain, after receiving the intimation from the United States, informed Tokio that she was "sorry, but under American pressure must request that the Japanese government do nothing further concerning the dispatch of an expeditionary corps to Europe.

"After this," the Handelsblad concludes, "the Japanese army disappear-

QUIET RESTORED IN GEORGIA CITY

Country Home of Slaton Still Guarded by Troops.

PREVENT ANY DAMAGE

Those Arrested During Demonstrations Given Hearing Late Yesterday and Fines Collected. In Care of Physicians.

Atlanta, Ga., June 22.—State troops tonight continued to guard the suburban home of Governor Slaton but all was quiet both there and in the city after the demonstrations of yesterday and last night by people opposed to the commutation of Leo M. Frank's death sentence. State and city officials said they anticipated no further trouble but as a precautionary measure additional militiamen were held under arms at the fifth regiment armory and extra policemen were available.

Governor Slaton spent several hours at his office in the capital today attending to official business. A policeman accompanied him to and from his home. There was no demonstration. The governor said tonight that the guard of soldiers was continued at his home to prevent any possible attempts at damage to the property. He did not say when the guard would be removed.

"The crowd which visited my home last night was not composed of the best people of Atlanta," declared the governor. "Today I have received telegrams from hundreds of people in Georgia and throughout the country, congratulating me upon my action in this case.

Arrested Given Hearing.

Thirty-four persons who were arrested yesterday and last night in connection with the demonstrations were given hearings in the police court late today. Nominal fines were imposed in eleven of the cases, eight were dismissed because of the inability of the officers to identify the accused, and the other cases were continued. The heaviest fine—$15.75—was imposed on J. A. Boseman, a police officer, who was alleged to have stated that he would lead a crowd to the governor's home.

WIND AND RAIN STORMS PLAY HAVOC IN SOUTH

Mississippi and Arkansas Are Swept by Near-Tornadoes.

Wind at Little Rock, Arkansas, Reaches Velocity of Seventy Miles an Hour. Wire Connections Down—One Man Killed.

Little Rock, Ark., June 22. — A terrific storm struck this city today. The wind attained a velocity of 70 miles an hour at 3:10 o'clock, and the temperature dropped 22 degrees in 15 minutes. Heavy rain accompanied the storm.

A negro was killed by a live wire torn loose by the wind. Great damage was done to store windows and automobiles left in the streets were blown about by the gale.

Fort Smith, Hot Springs, Arkadelphia and Helena were cut off from communication with this city, and the extent of the damage in those directions is not known.

MISSISSIPPI IS VISITED.

Northern and Central Parts of State Suffer—Wire Communication Broken.

Jackson, Miss., June 23. — Storms of unusual severity visited various sections in Northern and Central Mississippi late today, according to meager reports reaching here. No details were available because of crippled wire communication. TEUTONS HAMMER AWAY AT LEMBURG

French Successes in the West Attract Attention.

GERMANS DENY LOSSES

Feature of New War Loan by British Government Allowing Small Investments Proves Popular Move—Many Subscribe.

London, June 22.—French gains in the West and the battle for Lemberg stand out as the distinctive struggles at the present stage of the European war. Many unconfirmed reports have reached London that Lemberg already has fallen to the Austro-Germans and Petrograd dispatches indicate that the evacuation of the Galician capital may be looked for at any time.

In the Vosges the Germans have retired to the east bank of the Fecht, according to their own admission, but they assert that all French attacks have been repulsed.

The fighting around Arras continues desperate and sanguinary, the Germans counter-attacking to offset the recent French gains. A wireless dispatch from Berlin says:

"Neutral reports declare that the battle raging near Arras may decide the fate of Northern France. The French are strong, but the Germans are continuously receiving reinforcements. The losses on both sides are fearful."

The house of commons today adopted a measure designed to check supplies reaching Germany through neutral states. The bill when it becomes a statute, may have a marked effect on American exports.

The feature of the new war loan to be issued by Great Britain, enabling the general public to invest as low as five shillings, bids fair to prove immensely popular, several firms announcing that they will purchase these vouchers for all their workmen as a nest egg towards savings.

FRENCH OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

Tells of Desperate Counter-Attack Made by Germans and Beaten Off.

Paris, June 22. — The following official statement was issued by the war office tonight:

"In the course of the forenoon about 15 additional shells were fired on Dunkirk. Our heavy batteries engaged the enemy's gun, which was responsible for that bombardment.

"In the region to the nort hof Arras the German counter attack came to an end toward morning. During the day there has been an artillery action of extreme violence between Souchez and Ecurie.

"In Champagne, near Perthes, the enemy exploded several mines without result. On the heights of the Meuse, at the Calonne trench, the Germans made a violent attack for the purpose of recovering the positions which they had lost. They succeeded only in occupying part of their former second line. A counter attack on our part resulted in almost all of it again falling into our hands.

"The number of prisoners taken in that region since June 20 has reached 220 men and three officers.

"Near Marcheville, in the Woevre, a feeble German attack—half a company—which had as its object the reoccupation of an abandoned trench between the two lines, was dispersed by our fire.

"In Lorraine a German counter attack, debouching to the east of Leintrey, was stopped by our artillery. In the Vosges, between the two branches of the Fecht river, we have continued our advance in the direction of Sononddach."

DISASTROUS EARTHQUAKE VISITS TOWNS IN CALIFORNIA.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 23.—Several deaths are reported at Calexico, a town on the Mexican boundary, as a result of an earthquake. Fires are reported to have started in some places.

The extent of the damage is unknown. Telegraph and telephone wires were put out of commission.

Considerable damage was reported at El Centro.

Reports from El Centro, in the Imperial Valley, stated that a severe quake was felt there early last night. Electric light wires were broken, throwing the town into darkness. Buildings were severely shaken.

The shock also was reported as felt slightly in Yuma, Ariz., and at other points near the Mexican border.

Calexico in Flames.

San Diego, Cal., June 22.—The town of Calexico, Calif., on the Mexican border, was reported to be in flames late tonight as the result of the earthquake felt in various parts of the Southwest.

No details were received as telegraphic communication has been interrupted.

Nearly Score Killed.

San Francisco, June 23—Advice received from El Centro, Cal., by long distance telephone early this morning stated that between ten and fifteen persons were killed by falling walls caused by the earthquake which occurred about 9 p. m. At 10 o'clock the report said, two large fires which had threatened the town were under control, but small fires still were burning.

BIG CONCERT TONIGHT

Baptists Complete Permanent Organization—Strong Addresses by Dr. White—Programme Today. Local Committees.

To the largest and most enthusiastic audience yet gathered at the Baptist Seaside Chautauquh at the Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, Rev. Jno. E. White, D. D., of Atlanta, delivered the last of three splendid lectures last night, this being on Sydney Lanier, the Southern poet. At the morning service he spoke on the "Coming People" in which he pictured America as the land of opportunity. Tonight there will be a concert by a chorus of 40 voices, all being of Wilmington, under the direction of Mr. W. G. Robertson.

Permanent organization was completed last night and a number of local promoting committees were appointed. The permanent officers are: President, Dr. J. J. Hurt, of Durham; vice presidents, Rev. Bruce Benton, of Rockingham; Dr. R. W. Reece, of Mt. Airy; Mr. M. B. Josey, of Scotland Neck; Mr. H. B. Parker, Jr., of Goldsboro, and Rev. D. J. Hunt, of Cliffside.

Mr. E. L. Middleton, of Raleigh, was elected general secretary, and Rev. W. M. Craig, of Wilmington, was made treasurer. Rev. Mr. Craig was also put on the Convention Chautauqua Committee, as chairman, in place of Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster. These were the recommendations of the committee on organization, made yesterday morning and adopted last evening.

Permanent Chautauqua.

The most important resolution passed by the committee and approved by the assembly was that the organization be made a permanent institution of the Baptist denomination of this part of the country, the location to be left to later selection, depending on inducements that might be offered.

Dr. White's morning lecture on the "Coming People; Is America It?" was an embodiment of the latest and best thought in America and directly drawn from the recent apparent break between Wilson and Bryan, the final end of which Dr. White says means that America is going to be the dominant nation of the Globe, without a rival. His proof is logical, as it is based on temporary and past history.

The tendency in all organized life is the final recognition of one as a dominantly superior. Before travel was made easy, small communities were worlds of their own. Greece grew into the type of the greatest and acknowledged master of her sphere. Rome did the same. Within the recent past England had the idea that she was to become the World Power Supreme. The Cecil Rhodes scholarships were intended primarily to draw the world to her by force of personal sympathetic relation. Germany had the idea that she was to become the recognized master through efficiency and superior knowledge.

Russia thought she would be master through her mighty force, she having the greatest population under allegiance to one government. The sad misunderstandings that grew out of inefficient diplomatic relations that pre-

DECISIONS IN SCHOOL FIGHTS ARE RESERVED

State Board Hears Both Sides in New Hanover.

Senator Cooper the Only Man to Appear Against J. O. Carr—Several Wilmington Citizens Appear for Him.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 22.—The State Board of Education wrestled several hours today with three local school fights involving as many counties, and reserved its decision until the shouting and the tumult should cease. The counties at interest were New Hanover, Warren and Currituck in the order named, and right vigorous were some of the remarks made to the State board, which was presided over by Lieutenant Governor Daughtridge and State Superintendent Joyner.

The point of divergence in New Hanover was the retention of J. O. Carr, and Senator W. B. Cooper was the sole opponent of the Wilmington man. The senator wanted Cuthbert Martin.

In Warren county the contest was a fight over the present superintendent of public instruction, Howard F. Jones. His side wanted J. S. Davis to succeed W. T. Carter, whose term has expired, and the other side wanted Prof. W. A. Graham, of Warrenton, as member of the board. The two members of the board are divided.

Currituck county brought forth claims of desiring a more progressive school policy. It was contended that Dr. G. M. Newbern, the county superintendent, devotes too much time to medicine and moreover is not a trained educator. Those favoring Dr. Newbern's retention advocated Allison Leary and those opposed to the incum-

WOULD RESTRICT TRADE TO HOLLAND

Except That Consigned to the Netherlands Overseas Trust.

NEW ORDER IN COUNCIL

Bill Introduced in the House of Commons and Passed Is Aimed to Stop Traffic With Germany Through Holland.

London, June 22.—An order in council to be issued prohibiting exportation of all goods to Holland except those consigned to the Netherlands Overseas Trust. It is expected to stop the trade now believed to be passing through Holland into Germany.

Announcement to this effect was made in the house of commons today by Captain E. G. Prettyman, partlimentary under-secretary to the board of trade.

Exportation of goods to The Netherlands Oversea Trust would be equivalent to a guarantee that no goods, either in the form received or in a subsequent form, would reach a country hostile to Great Britain.

Captain Prettyman made the announcement in introducing the "customs exportation restriction bill." He explained that a partial arrangement with The Netherlands Trust had been in operation for some time and that the British consul had made a favorable report on it.

Control All Exports.

He added that the bill would enable extension of similar control over exports to other neutral countries.

Provision is made in the bill for a fine of $2,500 or imprisonment for two years for violation of its terms. Consignors and shippers will be equally responsible.

Mr. Prettyman said it was proposed not only to regulate the number of consignments exported, but to keep a careful record of the amount of each article going to certain countries and to prohibit further exportation immediately it appeared that more of any article was going to any country than could normally be consumed there.

A special committee will be appointed to deal with licenses for exporting cotton. Mr. Prettyman said all cotton products would be on the prohibited lists.

The bill passed all stages.

HAVE EXPECTED ORDER.

Holland-America Steamship Line Gives Out Statement at New York.

New York, June 22.—It was said at the office of the Holland-America Line here today that almost since the beginning of the war in Europe virtually all the contraband cargo carried from the United States to Holland in Dutch bottoms had been consigned to The Netherlands Overseas Trust, which is under the direct supervision of the government. It also was said that a formal order making obligatory the consignment of all cargoes, whether contraband or not, in a similar manner had been expected for some time.

APPLIES ONLY TO BRITISH.

Latest Order Is Thus Understood in Washington—Shippers Comply.

Washington, June 22.—Enforcement of the British order in council against commerce with Germany and Austria for some time has made it necessary for American exporters to consign their shipments to Holland to the Overseas Trust. Goods not so consigned have been subject to seizure and indefinite detention pending the produc-

"Tennessee: A period of intermittent showers will set in about Friday or Saturday and again on Tuesday, the 29th. Temperature will be close to the seasonal average."

One Hundred and Twenty-Eight Indicted for Conspiracy to Commit a Felony.

BY INDIANAPOLIS JURY

Those Indicted Include City Mayor, Chief of Police and Other Politicians.

Taggart Doesn't Know What He is Indicted For.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 22.—Not half of the 128 men indicted by the Marion county grand jury here today, on charges of conspiracy to commit felonies such as are defined by the election laws of the state and the laws against bribery and blackmail, had surrendered to Sheriff George V. Coffin and given bond tonight. Thomas Taggart, Democratic National Committeeman for Indiana; Joseph E. Bell, mayor of Indianapolis; Samuel V. Perrott, chief of police, and Robert W. Metzger, Republican member of the board of public safety, however, were among the first to acknowledge service in the case and give surety.

The bonds of those who surrendered today range from $2,500 to $10,000. It was estimated that if all the 128 were to give bond the total would run to more than $300,000.

No date for the arraignment has been announced and Judge James A. Collins, of the criminal court, said late today that the date would not be set until next week.

Mr. Taggart and Mr. Bell tonight proclaimed their innocence and asserted they had committed no crimes for which they should be indicted.

Ignorant of the Charge.

"I have not been able to find out what I have been indicted for," said Mr. Taggart. "I have not seen the indictment and when our attorneys asked for copies they were told the indictment was not ready to spread upon the record. Until I know with what I am charged, obviously there is little for me to say."

Mr. Taggart added that he would remain in Indianapolis until bonds were provided for all indicted.

Mayor Bell declared that he was ready for trial now.

"I have violated no law," he said, "and the story in the newspapers today was the first intimation I had of the indictment. After our attorneys have had an opportunity to examine the indictment, I may have something to say."

The sheriff's office was crowded all afternoon with defendants and their friends arranging bonds. Only a few capiases were served outside of the sheriff's office. While a few of the bonds were provided by surety companies, the majority of those offered today were by friends of the indicted men. None seemed to have difficulty in furnishing the required security.

The indictment, which is in 48 counts and covers 228 typewritten pages, charges that the conspiracy began prior to the primary of May 5th, 1914, and extended through the election of November 3, 1914. It charges illegal voting, intimidation, false registration, pedding the tally sheets, stuffing the ballot boxes, illegal manipulation of voting machines, blackmailing of saloonkeepers and resort owners, bribery and vote buying.

Penalty If Convicted.

Conviction of the charges of conspiring to commit a felony or felonies carries with it a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $5,000 and imprisonment of not less than two years or more than fourteen. The grand jury under the guidance of prosecutor Alvah J. Rucker, has had under investigation election conditions since early last January and a total of 1,937 witnesses were examined.

Thomas Taggart was the first of the indicted men to appear at the sheriff's office to acknowledge service in the case. He was closely followed by Mayor Bell.

Among those indicted were many members of Mayor Bell's official family, former city officials, policemen, ward leaders and primary and election officials. The list includes Herman Adam, city sealer of weights and measures; Denis Bush, street commissioner; Edward Lyons, Democratic candidate for county treasurer; Dr. John W. Sluss, Republican and former superintendent of the city hospital; Donn M. Roberts, former mayor of Trere Haute, convicted in the Terre Haute election frauds trial in Federal court recently; Charles Coval, formerly Mayor Bell's secretary; Jacob B. Hilkene, city building inspector; Oscar Merrill, police lieutenant; Patrick J. Roche and Michael Glenn, city detectives.

FAIRMONT BREAKS EVEN IN WEEKOF BASEBALL GAMES

Fairmont, N. C., June 22.—By winning from Red Springs Saturday, 11 to 3, Fairmont last week broke even, winning and losing two. Two of those lost were to the fast Raeford team and one of the wins from Raeford.

Saturday's game with Red Springs was featured solely by the consistent hitting of the entire Fairmont outfit and by Freezland's steady pitching. Seventeen Red Springs players hit the dust before his fast ball, and only four of them were able to safely connect with his delivery, one of which was of the scratch variety. Red Springs did not score until after two men had been retired in the ninth, when a hot grounder passed short, Freezland issued transportation to first and McMillan hit for a home run.

The scores at Raeford were:

Wednesday's game, Raeford, 2; Fairmont 1 (18 innings.)

Thursday's game, Raeford, 9; Fairmont, 1.

Friday's game, Raeford, 3; Fairmont, four.

Freezland, Currie and Floyd did the slab work for the local team on the trip, each pitching one game and Raeford and Freezland pitching the Red Springs game.

ROCKY MOUNT TEAM DEFEATS PETERSBURG IN GREAT CLASH.

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 22.—The Tar Heels chased up to within a half game of the league leaders this afternoon when they took the long end of a slugging match in which 24 hits were made and Rice, for Petersburg, and Applegate, for the Tar Heels, made an equal division of them. Again it was Gray's pummel of the pill out of the lot that untied the score while thetwo runs following made a lead that the Goobers couldn't overtake, though they called forth masterful effort in the seventh and ninth when men were in the paths with nobody down. It was a great clash in which each team fought hard throughout, while the pounding of what is considered of the best of the flinging department of both clubs evidences that each were after the grafolan.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR WRESTLING MATCH.

Fritz Hansen, Welterweight Champion, to Meet Eddie Schultz.

All the arrangements have been completed for the wrestling match to be given Friday night in Johnny Cunningham's training quarters in the Woolvin building between Fritz Hansen, the world's welterweight champion, and Eddie Schultz. These two wrestlers had a match last Friday night in which the latter got the worst of it but Hansen says he realizes that Schultz had not had time to train for the event and for that reason has consented to a return engagement. Both men are said to be in fine condition.

There will be several preliminary events including an exhibition tustle of 30 minutes between Johnny Cunningham, the featherweight champion, and George Herbert, who was in the city some time ago. There will also be a wrestling match between two amateurs and several other events well worth while for lovers of this kind of sport.

Lone Irishman Kills 8, Takes 2

AND CAPTURES GERMAN POSITION. ALSO GETS DECORATED BY THE KING HIMSELF.

London, June 22.—Sergeant Michael O'Leary of the Irish Guards, went to Buckingham Palace today and received the personal congratulations of King George, who pinned the Victoria Cross on the soldier's breast.

O'Leary won this, the most coveted of the British military decorations, in France.

According to the official account O'Leary formed one of a storming party at Cuinchy. As the party was advancing against the German trenches O'Leary rushed to the front and killed five Germans holding the first barricade which he captured after killing three more Germans and taking two others prisoners.

The official report added that O'Leary virtually captured the German position by himself and prevented the remainder of the attacking party from being fired on.

MEN ENLISTED FOR SERVICE IN EUROPE

"British Veterans" Arrested at New York.

WERE READY TO SAIL

Seven Men Who Journeyed from San Francisco to Take Steamer at New York for England to Join British Detained.

New York, June 22.—Seven men who are alleged to have enlisted at San Francisco as British veterans were arrested here today by special agents of the Department of Justice. They were en route to England. Assistant District Attorney Wood said an investigation of alleged breaches of neutrality was in progress in San Francisco. The men arrested here, it was asserted, were wanted as witnesses. They were arraigned and held in $500 bail each for appearance before the Federal grand jury in San Francisco.

The order of detention was made in accordance with the Federal criminal code which declares it to be unlawful for any one in the United States to enlist or induce another to go beyond the jurisdiction of this country for service as a soldier, sailor, marine or on a privateer. The maximum punishment for such an offense is a fine of $1,000 or three years' imprisonment, or both.

The men were said to have arrived here from the Pacific coast yesterday and they expected, government officials say, to sail on the steamship Arabic tomorrow. The seven located gave their names as James W. Smith, William V. Granney, Frank G. Cook, Patrick Casey, Harry Albert, Fred Bond and William Stables. They will be sent back across the continent at the expense of the government.

REVEALED IDENTITY OF MEN.

Man Who Prevailed Upon "Old Veterans" to Enlist at San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 22.—Ralph K. Blair, at whose office, alleged recruiting for the Allies in the European war is said to have been carried on under instructions from the British consul, has given Federal authorities information which led to the arrest of seven men in New York, it was announced today. The men will testify here before a Federal grand jury to be called soon.

Blair told the United States district attorney, it was learned, that he had aided a number of British veterans to return "as a patriotic act." He said only men who had served in the British army were "enlisted." He said he examined them for fitness but received no pay for his work.

He said he sent 75 men, all veterans, on their way to join the British army.

CRUISER WASHINGTON IS ORDERED TO CAPE HAITIEN.

To Assume Control There—French Marines Landed to Restore Order.

Washington, June 22.—Admiral Caperton, with his flagship, the cruiser Washington, was ordered from Vera Cruz to Cape Haitien today to relieve marines landed there last week by the French cruiser Des Cartes to preserve order.

Haiti is turbulent again as the result of the overthrow by revolutionists of President San, the little republic's eighth executive in seven years.

Reports to Washington told of shooting in the streets of Cape Haitien and of the killing of natives charged with pillaging. As the converted yacht Eagle was the only American warship in the vicinity the Des Cartes' commander promptly landed marines to protect foreigners.

State Department officials said today France had not notified the American government of this step. On his arrival at Cape Haitien, however, Admiral Caperton will express Washington's appreciation for the prompt action of the French commander and the French marines probably will be withdrawn.

Little confidence in the stability of the government of Haiti is felt here. Recent reports from Haiti have indicated that the result of the swiftly changing control of the government has brought the country to the verge of utter financial collapse.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Davis and children will arrive in Wilmington today from Columbia, S. C., and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perdew. Later they will spend some time at Wrightsville Beach.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

The Way Samose Works Its Wonders—Guaranteed by J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company.

More than half the readers of the Star would give almost anything to be plump and rosy, instead of thin and scrawny.

This preparation is now put up in convenient form for use under the name of Samose.

Taken with each meal, it enables the food you eat to assimilate with the system and that in connection with its own flesh-forming and tissue-building foods gives healthy flesh. The emaciated form fills out into the beautiful curves of plumpness, the scrawny limbs become round and firm, the cheeks fill out and take on the rosy bloom of perfect health and normal strength.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. have secured the agency in Wilmington for Samose, and as the percentage of satisfactory results from the use of this prescription is so nearly one hundred per cent, they feel there is no risk in offering to refund the money if Samose does not do all that is claimed for it.

FRENCH SUCCESSES IN "THE LABYRINTH"

Conquest of Strong German Position Described.

BY OFFICIAL OBSERVER

Desperate Fighting Continued From May 30 to June 17 Without Cessation—Both Sides Lost Heavily, French Over 2,000.

Paris, June 22.—The fighting from May 30 to June 17 resulting in the conquest by the French of the system of works and trenches which the soldiers called "the Labyrinth," is described today in a dispatch from an official observer at the front. "The Labyrinth", lying between Neuville, St. Vaast and Ecurie, formed a salient of the German line and its position, a strong one, was greatly reinforced from time to time.

"French attacks on May 9th and thereafter failed to modify the situation," the observer writes.

"At the end of May the French decided to finish things, and the order was given to take "the Labyrinth," inch by inch.

"This meant an operation of two principal phases, of different nature. It was necessary first, by well prepared and vigorous assaults, to get a footing in the enemy organization and to proceed to the interior of the communicating trenches, in repulsing the enemy step by step. These two operations lasted more than three weeks and resulted in complete success.

Under Heavy Fire.

"The debouch must have been difficult, as numerous Germany batteries, concentrated their fires on us. They were stationed at Givenchy, at Lafolie, at Thelus, Farbus and Beauraine, south of Arras. Nevertheless our men understood and prepared to do their duty. It was May 30 that the assaults began, our regiments marching out from different points. Their ardor was admirable.

"Everywhere, except on the right, we captured the first line. Behind this were a great number of barricades and fortlets. We took some of these while others stopped us. One hundred and fifty prisoners, surprised in their holes, fell into our hands.

"From this moment the war of the communicating trenches began. Our troops had to overcome innumerable difficulties.

"Without a stop from May 30 to June 17 they fought on this ground, full of big holes and filled with dead. The combat continued day and night. The attacking elements, constantly renewed, crushed the Germans with hand grenades and demolished their earth barricades. There was not an hour of truce nor an instant of repose. The men were under a sun so hot in the trenches that they fought bareheaded and in their shirt sleeves.

"On each of these bloody days there were acts of incomparable heroism. From three sides at a time we attained ground where the Germans had dug, ten meters under ground, formidable shelters. The enemy's artillery continued firing on our line without interruption. Our reserves suffered, for in this upturned earth where every blow from the pick-axe would disinter a body one can prepare but slowly the deep shelters which the situation demands.

"We lost many men, but the morale of the troops was unshaken.

"The Germans lost an entire regiment. We took 1,000 prisoners. The rest were killed. A Bavarian regiment also was decimated.

"Our losses were 2,000 men, among whom many were slightly wounded.

"The resistance was as fierce as the attack."

DENY THAT LINER TRIED TO RAM A SUBMARINE.

Anchor Line Denies Story Told by Passengers—Protest to Consul.

London, June 22.—The Anchor Line, owners of the Cameronia, which was reported to have barely escaped from a submarine in the Irish sea on her voyage from New York to Liverpool, denied today that the vessel had encountered any under-water craft. Passengers on the Cameronia, however, corroborated the story told yesterday by Peter Fletcher, of New York, who asserted that the Cameronia attempted to ram a submarine. Carroll Winslow, of New York, declared that two submarines were seen near the vessel. The Cameronia attempted to ram one of them, Mr. Winslow said, and went over the underwater craft, which came up broadside to the liner. Before it could get into a position to fire a torpedo, he said, the liner left it far astern.

Mr. Winslow told his story at the American consulate and protested against what he considered the failure to give needed protection to the vessel so near the British coast.

DR. PETER CHARLES VITOU DEAD.

Prominent Citizen of Goldsboro Passed Away Last Night.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., June 22.—Mr. Peter Charles Vitou, father of Dr. E. C. Vitou died at the home of the latter in this city tonight at 7:30 o'clock, aged 83 years. The funeral will be held from Friends church tomorrow afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Barrett, at 5 o'clock. He came to this country from England, his native home, 40 years ago. He is survived also by three other sons and one daughter, Dr. Henry Vitou, of South Bend, Ind.; Dr. Benjamin Vitou and Mrs. Mary Robinson, Portland, Ore., and Walter Vitou, of Cleveland, O.

Mr. S. L. Dill, former superintendent of the A. & N. C. railroad and still associated with its successor, the Norfolk Southern, with headquarters in Newbern, came up to the city today to pay his last tribute of respect at the bier of the late Mr. F. W. Tatem whom he was so long associated with. The remains will be taken to Suffolk, Va., on the 7 o'clock train Wednesday instead of Berkley, Va., as formerly announced, for interment in that city.

THEATRICAL

The Demorest Stock Company continues its highly successful engagement at the Victoria Theatre. With its repertoire of fine dramas and comedies it appears to have struck the popular fancy and last night another large audience was immensely delighted at the presentation of "Plain Folks." Last night marked the final presentation of this drama, too, because tonight the company will offer a new play. It will be one of the most popular of all, being "Lena Rivers." Who has not heard of this charming play, and who does not know the sweet story of "Lena Rivers?" It is a play that will live on in tender memory and that theatre-goers never fail to be glad of the opportunity to see. The Demorest Company gives a strong presentation of the beautiful play, making the production with special scenery and offering a strong cast. Clever Ona Demorest, an actress who has already won the hearts of theatre-goers, will be seen in the title role, and her portrayal of "Lena" is indeed a brilliant bit of acting. Little Master Bob Demorest is also in this cast, being seen in the role of "John."

There will be another big show of vaudeville, entirely different from that the first part of the week and there will also be new movies, thus affording three shows for the price of one—10 and 20 cents at night. A matinee of "Lena Rivers" will be given tomorrow afternoon, when the prices will be 5 cents for children and 10 cents for adults.

The company makes a big announcement for the last part of the week, when the famed play, "The Little Mother," will be offered. Theatre-goers can't afford to miss this week's big attraction, and will find solid comfort at the electrically chilled Victoria.

"The Black Box"—Bijou.

Today is a veritable triple-feature occasion at the home of "The Incomparable Movies," three pictures, each one a great feature that would draw capacity crowds, being on the bill.

Of course, the 11th thrilling episode of "The Black Box" heads the list. You don't want to miss this great chapter in the greatest of all mystery stories. The threads are gradually unwinding from the skein upon which they have been tangled, and today's episode, showing the thrilling escape of Sanford Quest and party from the "Island of Vengeance," is absolutely the greatest yet.

Pretty Gene Gauntier, with her leading man, Jack Clark, make their first big bow under the Universal colors in a great two-reel drama today, "The Smuggler's Lass," a drama full of the breeze of the big outdoors. It is a stirring story of the hill country, full of real action, love and pathos, quite out of the ordinary in plot and presentation, and is as bright and breezy as the sea.

Then there's a great L-Ko—you don't get them often but when they come they are simply great—"Park Johnnies", featuring pretty Louise Orth, with those great fun-makers, Harry Gribbon, Fatty Voss and Vin Moore. The park flirts meet their match and outraged hubby and a sharpshooter make things hot for them for a while.

At the Grand Today.

The feature attraction at the Grand today is the Kalem three-reel "Broadway Favorites" feature, "Wife for Wife," with Wilmuth Merkyl in the leading role. This play which for years was one of the most successful ever on the boards was written by John A. Stephens and is filled with gripping situations and closes intensely interesting throughout the role of Edward Walton is splendidly suited to Mr. Merkyl's talents. Regina Richards, who has appeared in a number of Broadway success, portrays the part of Edith, the unhappy wife.

Virginia Kirtley and Webster Campbell appear in a splendid comedy drama "Persistence Wins," from the Beauty studio and in which Peter, by being a very persistent suitor finally wins the hand of his lady love.

The Hearst Selig weekly is as usual full of many interesting events from all parts of the world, one of especial interest being the National Capital horse show.

Momentous Future In Woman's Mind

The expectant mother revolves in her mind all we understand by destiny. And it is of the utmost importance that her physical comfort be our first thought. There is a most splendid remedy for this purpose, known as "Mother's Friend." It is applied over the muscles of the stomach, gently rubbed in, and at once penetrates to relieve all strain on nerves, cords, ligaments and all parts involved. It makes the muscles so pliant that they expand naturally. And at the same time they are invigorated by the absence of harassing pains so apt to distress the mind. Whatever will add to the comfort of the expectant mother is a great and helpful influence since a calm and peaceful period must have a wonderfully beneficial impress upon the coming child. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" of any druggist and you will realize why so many women declare it to be the most helpful remedy they know of. Write today to Bradfield Regulator Co., 703 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a splendid book of great interest and value to every expectant mother.

Among the letters of interest in this book one says, in part, "Seven years ago I suffered from Wednesday to Saturday and had to have instruments. This time I was sick only three hours. I want to tell all that I can not praise 'Mother's Friend' high enough for the good it did me, as I had an easy time and the baby was perfect. I will always speak a good word for it."

New Remedy That Heals Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. has sold hundreds of jars of Hokara, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing is the reports of chronic cases of exzema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara should give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases should be cured in a short time.

PANAMA POLICE BATTLE WITH ESCAPED CONVICTS.

Leading the Lives of Bandits, Prisoners Give Battle in the Jungles.

Panama, June 22.—Panama police have had a number of fierce encounters with convicts who recently escaped from the penitentiary at Santiago, in the province of Veragua, after killing a police lieutenant and one guard and dangerously wounding five other guards. The men took refuge in the jungles and were heavily armed with rifles and revolvers. They also had a large quantity of ammunition which they obtained by breaking into the arsenal.

Five of the bandits have been re-captured by the police, one was killed and five still are at large. One of those taken into custody was the leader of the band, Ittilie Gonzales, a Cuban. He has a notorious record, according to the police, and was serving a term of imprisonment for murder.

The five men still free seem to have lost themselves in a jungle, but are being trailed by the police. The convicts are leading the life of bandits.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Will Clean Your Sluggish Liver Better Than Calomel and Can Not Salivate.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quicksilver and it salivates; calomel injures your liver.

If you are bilious; feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your bowels are constipated and your head aches or stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone instead of using sickening, salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerful; full of energy, vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tone because it is pleasant tasting and doesn't gripe or cramp or make them sick.

I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tone to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable, liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. Buy one bottle on my sound, reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about me.

TOP O' THE MORNING

To be a strong hand to another in the time of need, to be a cup of strength to a human soul in a crisis of weakness, is to know the glory of life.
—HUGH BLACK.

So long as a nation can fight it isn't whipped already till it gets tired and says so.

Those who would like to have peace would never trust Teddy to go out and get any for them.

Preparedness is all right, anyhow. It is better than being kicked when kicking back would be useless.

Some of the worst pessimists are those who have plenty, but want several times more than they need.

The prohibitionist who is dabbling in watered stocks will not profit by reason of his being on the water-wagon.

At this time most any man is liable to have to take more blame than he would when everybody is on a peace footing.

"Oh, that mine enemy might write a book" when he is young and try to explain it when he is old enough to know better.

Colonel Roosevelt is advocating preparedness, Professor Taft is advocating peace by compulsion, and Colonel Bryan is advocating peace of every description.

London dispatches say the Turkish soldiers treat their captured and wounded enemies humanely. Probably the Turks are trying to set an example in case anything should happen to them.

Instead of war news, we occasionally get from Europe accounts of stunts of such an incredible character as leads one to suppose that Baron Munchausen was not the last of the real artists who drew on their imagination.

Because Colonel Bryan is a peace advocate he has to defend himself from attack from those who claim that they, too, advocate peace. Evidently some of these peace advocates are mistaken. You pick out who you think is mistaken. We have other fish to fry.

The Allentown Democrat says: "Steele, Knight & Day is the name of a tobacco firm in Nicholasville, Ky., and yet every member of the firm is above suspicion." Well, they don't have to do anything of the kind so long as they can let tobacco do the work for them.

The Greensboro News says: "A San Francisco Chinaman choked to death eating 'possum. These Orientals are unfitted for absorption of our American institutions." Indeed the Chink met death in failure to qualify for assimilation by one portion of our Southern population.

A scientist says the people of all countries get nutty every 25 years. While they are nutty they will do most anything. They seem to get nutty by groups sometimes. Some three years ago a group of men got it into their heads that they were "standing at Armageddon" and kept on thinking they were right there till they came to and slipped away.

Colonel Bryan is pretty well satisfied that people would disagree with him whether he says he is for peace or war. He declares he is endeavoring to crystalize sentiment in support of President Wilson's peace plans, but some of the press disputes him on that point. When a fellow is splitting hairs and some other fellow says he isn't, which one has it doped out right?

It is never a good idea to argue with a man who says he shapes his course according to his conscience. In order to convert him to your view, the first thing you would have to do is to convince him that he has no conscience but only thinks he has. Owing to the fact that life is too short to undertake that line of argument, the best thing to do is to go fishing and stay right on the job.

GEORGIANS FURNISH AMPLE REASON.

Georgians themselves, at least a certain class, doubtless very small even though potent, furnish to observers at a distance ample reason for believing that Leo M. Frank could not get a fair trial in Atlanta at the time he was convicted. When any portion of the people make such an ugly demonstration as was made by a mob at the private home of their own governor on Monday night, near Atlanta, we may well know the sentiment and temper of that class of people when Frank was on trial, charged with the murder of Mary Phagan.

When the governor had armed friends around him for protection and had a pistol where he could lay his hand on it himself, it does not take a keen person to observe what it is to have courage enough to take such action as Governor Slaton did in commuting the death sentence of Frank to life imprisonment. With a mob of several hundred clamoring to enter the gate at the private home of the chief magistrate of the great state of Georgia, threatening to overpower twenty armed county policemen, that class of Georgians who composed the mob furnished us the spectacle of their governor calling out four military companies to insure his protection from them.

At Marietta and Newnan, two towns some distance from Atlanta, mobs burned the governor and Frank in effigy, while the chief man in Georgia was placarded as "John M. Slaton, Georgia's Traitor Governor." There was more evidence that there is in Georgia a class to be reckoned with by courts of justice liable to be intimidated in performing their duty. Whether violence would have been done to the governor himself or not, the mob evidently was not at his home for its health nor his. Neither is it difficult to conceive that the same mob would have murdered Frank had he fallen into their hands.

The outside world now fully understands why the judge who tried Frank would not dare to set the verdict aside or grant him a new trial. He was intimidated and was so keenly apprehensive of the danger of a lynching right under his eyes or of violence to the court, that he denied the motion for a new trial. At that time, the judge's action in that respect saved Frank's life, although the judge left a statement before he died to the effect that he had never been convinced that Frank was guilty and that he intended to ask the governor to commute his sentence.

Altogether it is an ugly chapter in Georgia's history. It shows that there is an element of society ready to brook the power of the state and defy and intimidate its courts. Unfortunately that element exists in other states, only the occasion being necessary for it to get busy.

"BOYCOTTING" BRYAN.

We take from the valued Atlanta Constitution, once a great Bryan paper, the following which speaks for itself:

"Editor Constitution: I want to congratulate you on the stand you are taking with regard to Mr. Bryan, that you are not going to publish any more of his stuff. If the balance of the newspapers of the United States had the sand and sense that you have, men like Mr. Bryan could or would not do fool things. You are absolutely right and you are publishing a great paper.

"Yours truly,
"JESSE A. GREGG.
"St. Paul, Minn."

Tut! Tut Tut! How could a newspaper reader know whether a man does wise things or foolish things, if the newspapers are going to refuse to publish his "stuff?" If the newspapers were to shut down on some men, they would have no way of making a fool of themselves so we could find it out in time, instead of going on believing that they are great men.

Men have just got to have some way by which to judge whether a man is "some pumpkins" or "small potatoes and few in a hill," and certainly there is no better way than to let them write a book or get in the limelight through the public press. Besides that, if by giving a man plenty of rope he will hang himself, what easier way to get rid of him would there be than to let him have all the rope he needs?

We could get fooled to death about some men if they had no chance to write or talk so they could put their foot in it or give themselves away. Suppose some of the statesmen we send to Washington were suppressed by the Speaker of the House, how could we know whether we had sent a Solomon, a Demosthenes or a Simple Simon to Congress? We are in favor of handing out a whole coil of rope if it would enable some men to get themselves into trouble or enable them to lasso fame.

This is not to say that Colonel Bryan is one of these men who are likely to destroy their usefulness to the world. The Democratic party has nominated him three times for president, and finally he has picked out for us a president that America has needed for fifty years. Besides that, President Wilson picked out Colonel Bryan for Secretary of State and overlooked all of us in North Carolina and Georgia, so we ought to be careful how we "set down" on and shut down on men because we cannot agree with them. Furthermore, it would be a reflection on the Democratic party for getting fooled three times, and on President Wilson for getting fooled once, to put what Bryan has to say on vital, pertinent and timely topics in the class worthy only to be ignored by the newspapers, like a convict whose citizenship has been forfeited.

It really will not make much difference with Colonel Bryan whether the newspapers publish his "stuff" or not. He has a paper of his own, for that matter, with a circulation that a great majority of the newspapers would be glad to claim. However, when he has had the ability to put one over on the great Democratic party of the Nation and to put over on our great Democratic President another one just like it, we acknowledge that Colonel Bryan might be able to put one over on us. There is one thing sure. We are not anyways ravenous about getting into any joint debate with him, not to tackle him on the chautauqua platform.

Every newspaper in America has a right to wastebasket the "stuff" of Colonel Bryan, Colonel Roosevelt, Colonel Taft or Colonel Wilson, but that would not make any great difference with them. They could write enough books to get even with all the newspapers. We are sure we have been greatly informed and edified by their writings, books and speeches, whether we have agreed with them or not. We don't have to agree with any of them and they don't have to care whether we do or not.

We can say this, however. The man who does not keep up with what such men think about, write about, speak about and raise cain about, will get too far behind the times to be in it with the class who do.

KNOW YOUR STATE.

The Star a few days ago gave its hearty endorsement to the call for a State-wide meeting at Raleigh next Tuesday morning to organize for the purpose of making known abroad the varied resources of North Carolina and to give publicity to the opportunities, possibilities and adaptabilities to be met with in every portion of the State. That is what we should have been doing for at least a quarter of a century.

While the aim is to let other people know what a great and resourceful State North Carolina is, we will have to "Know North Carolina", ourselves before we can begin to tell about the marvelous opportunities to be found here. We ought to have a campaign to convince ourselves that we know what we are talking about. There are thousands of North Carolinians who really know nothing of the wonderful adaptabilities of the various sections of the State.

It is up to ourselves to make use of some of those fine opportunities we wish to tell others to come and enjoy. We know scores of opportunities that are neglected by us. The Star has endeavored almost daily for twelve or fourteen years to point out many of them. We have even met skeptics who lacked conviction about the fact that North Carolina is the most desirable state on the South Atlantic seaboard.

One of the important things for us to do is not only to invite newcomers to North Carolina but to keep North Carolinians at home. If we utilize the opportunities we have, they can be kept right in North Carolina. If we will help them to seize the opportunities that are here they will be bound to stay.

Most natives who leave do so because they are compelled or invited to go elsewhere for opportunities. Most all who go to other states are helped to seize opportunities that are to be found in rapidly developing communities, while they leave behind them better undeveloped resources in the Good Old North State.

ROOSEVELT DON'T CARE A RAP.

The New York World on Sunday sent a reporter to Sagamore Hill to ask Colonel Roosevelt if he cared to reply to Colonel Bryan's criticism of his advocacy of military preparedness. Colonel Bryan did that in his New York speech on Saturday night in Carnegie Hall at a mass meeting of laboring men to hear the Nebraskan talk peace.

The World reporter informed Colonel Roosevelt that he had been attacked. He said he had never heard of it, and said he didn't even want to have it read to him. The reporter even attempted to relate some of the incidents but Colonel Roosevelt interrupted him with a big laugh.

"I don't care a rap!" the Colonel broke in, waving aside further attempts to quote Colonel Bryan to him. "Heavens and earth," he exclaimed, "I've got serious things to do."

CURRENT COMMENT.

The evolution of a torpedo-proof battleship is a consummation greatly to be desired if we are to continue to spend $15,000,000 apiece on superdreadnoughts. When a submarine, costing $500,000, with a crew of 25 men, can send to the bottom in ten minutes a 30,000 ton battleship and 1,000 men, naval science has a task ahead to justify its past theories.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

If a notary is an officer, and a legislator is an officer, and one cannot hold two offices; and if therefore a man who is both a notary and a legislator is neither a notary nor a legislator; and if most of the members of the general assembly from time to time have also held notarial commissions, what then becomes the status of most of the laws of our State, and great part of its legal acts which rest upon affidavits?—Greensboro News.

"I have always stood for peace * * * but there are some things even more abhorrent than war; that is, to be robbed of the birthright of freedom, justice, safety and character. Against any attempt of any person or group of persons or nation or nations * * * to undermine or destroy these fundamentals of normal human existence and development, I would not only fight to defeat it, but prevail upon every red-blooded liberty and humanity loving man to resist to the last degree."—Samuel Gompers. No one has stated better than Mr. Gompers the true American attitude toward war. Many men have tried it and, between provocative talk and Tolstoyian non-resistance, have made a frightful mess.—New York World.

That question is being asked by some thoughtful farmers in this section. Why not? Creameries are proving profitable all over the State and there is no reason why a creamery should not prove profitable right here in Lumberton. It would start a steady stream of money that would flow the year round, and any farmer with pasture lands could make a good thing with as many cows as he could keep. It is worth investigating. Some farmers are interested, for one wide-awake farmer has asked The Robesonian to bring up the question. Which The Robesonian is glad to do; it will be glad to help in any possible way to get a creamery started. It does not know anything about a creamery but plenty of folks do, and it here and now opens its columns to any one who has any information to give about creameries. Let's get down to brass tacks without loss of time and either "bust" up the idea that a creamery would be a good and profitable thing for Lumberton or prove that it would and get one started. Who will help?—Lumberton Robesonian.

To the Editor of The Star:

I've been wondering how my generous and distinguished friend, Capt. Tom Meares, secured a copy-plate for my picture, recently appearing in the Pythian monthly, which he edits with such signal ability; he "nosed" around and got it entirely "unbeknownst" to me. I recognize the picture as one taken several years ago by special request for a gifted and valued artist friend to make an enlarged likeness, and the finished product, while flattering to the original, reflects infinite pains and consummate skill upon the talented artist.

In the goodness of her heart she wrought with deft fingers to produce something that would please me for a Christmas gift, inasmuch, forsooth, as I had done her a little, insignificant professional service that appealed to her noble instincts. She's made of the finest fiber that goes into the warp and woof of the highest type of the Pythian Knight, of which Captain Tom is a worthy exemplar. I'm fully persuaded the Supreme Master of Exchequer of the Grand Domain of the United States—that is no empty compliment, but one bestowed for service, character and brains—published my picture and the lines I appreciate under it, to get even with me, because I had the temerity to write a doggerel, patterned after Poe's beautiful Annabel Lee, about Captain Tom and his little angel lass, Jane the Third. He was pleased to style the doggerel a poem, and said in substance, he adorned a page in his scrap book with it.

You were very kind to reproduce Captain Meares' little article. He and I frequently have met in the lodge room. He likes to talk Pythianism, which had its birth in Washington, D. C., during the latter part of the year 1864, and stood then for peace, as it now stands for the same with greater emphasis.

He put me down as a member of Jefferson Lodge, No. 61, but in his calmer moments he knows better. It shows how easily the mind drops into error on one line when it is thoroughly engrossed in another. He was so industriously seeking the copy-plate for my picture, it's a wonder he did not enter me as a doky from the great desert, instead of a knight from Jefferson.

Would Captain Tom mind if I delicately remind him of what he already so thoroughly knows—that I am an humble member of good old Clarendon, No. 2, the best lodge in Wilmington, the best lodge in North Carolina, and that means the best in the world.

W. C. GALLOWAY.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work.

In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

DR. KENAN DESCRIBES SINKING OF LUSITANIA

Wilmington Man Tells of His Narrow Escape

In Letter from London Recalls Awful Experience Which He Declares Words Cannot Portray—Unable to Forget Scene.

The many friends of Dr. Owen H. Kenan, son of Mrs. James G. Kenan, of this city, who was one of the passengers on the ill-fated Lusitania, will be much interested in learning something of his experience on board this vessel when it went down after being struck by a torpedo, and The Star, through the courtesy of members of the family has the privilege this morning of publishing a part of a personal letter which gives a wonderfully vivid description of the destruction of the boat, causing the loss of more than a thousand lives.

Dr. Kenan was one of those who survived the terrible disaster, but his escape certainly seems to have been miraculous. After being picked up by a torpedo boat destroyer he was carried to Queenstown along with other passengers and remained at that place in a hospital for three weeks. He then went to London and the letter recounting his experience was written from that city early in June.

Dr. Kenan was not well before leaving New York and on his voyage across was confined to his state-room most of the time on account of an attack of tonsilitis. Fortunately at the time the vessel was struck by a torpedo he was on deck and this doubtless was responsible for saving his life. After the vessel went down he remained in the water for four hours before he was rescued.

Dr. Kenan's Letter.

"My friends certainly have been thoughtful of me," he writes, "and I have received dozens of letters from friends, whom I scarcely knew, from England, France and America. I am in London now but I am not myself and I feel that I am in poor form mentally and physically. I cannot get away from that awful scene where so many who were with me, were taken and some of us escaped.

"As for myself, while I never had a moment of fear or excitement and in fact there was was almost no excitement among the first cabin passengers, I seemed to have done everything I did involuntarily. I had just left my cabin and was on my way to deck A when the torpedo struck the boat. It made a terrific explosion, throwing debris in every direction, and almost immediately the boat listed to the starboard so that one could scarcely stand. Everyone knew what had happened. In a minute or two she righted herself somewhat. I went out on the upper deck to see what the situation was.

"There I saw third class passengers pilling into life boats without order or command. As the boats which could not be or were not lowered filled up the bottoms pulled out and this mass of humanity was spilled 40 or 50 feet into the sea. I looked over the rail and saw nothing but hands and arms in the water below. The air was rent with their screams but there was nothing one could do. The boat was sinking and all this was transpiring most rapidly.

Realized Ship Was Sinking.

"I hurried to my stateroom, 100 B deck, to get my life jacket and fortunately my steward was near the door and got it for me. I thought of one or two things I wanted to save, but there was not time. As I left my room there was a fountain head of water spirting up through a break in the floor outside in the corridor. Even then the word came from the captain that the boat would float for some time and that she was not sinking.

"I met some friends I knew at the Eighth entrance of the deck and after a few minutes I realized that the good ship was going and I went to the starboard and jumped into the sea, only to be carried down to a great depth by a terrible and strong suction. It was in this plight that I barely missed suffocation by drowning and being crushed to death by two life boats and debris deep under the surface. When the suction subsided I realized that I was caught under something. I had a feeling that my head was expanding and the thought flashed through my mind that perhaps I was losing consciousness.

"I can't tell why but I put my hands up over my head and, as if walking on the wall, pushed myself along until I felt the edge and pushed myself from under and began to come up. I kept my eyes open and when I began to see the light through the water I felt I should be saved though I was nearly done for and could feel myself swallowing great gulps of salt water. I came to the surface and gasped for breath. I looked up and I was directly under the forward smoke stack which was sticking out of the water at an acute angle and I said to myself that this would finish me. I went down again almost at once and my memory is blank.

"When I opened my eyes again the entire boat had disappeared and the scene surrounding me of dead, drowning and struggling humanity mixed with a great quantity of broken debris I cannot describe. After four hours in the water I was taken aboard a torpedo boat destroyer almost frozen and much maimed.

"I will have to see you to tell you further in detail of this awful tragedy that can only sadden one. I want to say this that no enemy boat of Germany, carrying ammunition should have passengers. It is reasonable to think that they will try to destroy that ammunition. * * *"

Dr. Kenan has only the highest words of praise for the people of Queenstown, who did everything possible for the comfort and the care of the destitute passengers.

MRS. MARY A. PRICE DEAD.

Peacefully Passed to World Beyond Yesterday Afternoon.

Mrs. Mary A. Price, widow of the late Charles A. Price, peacefully surrendered her soul to God yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home, No. 206 North Second street. She had been an invalid practically two years prior to her death, but retained consciousness until a few minutes before the end. She bore her suffering with exemplary fortitude and her death from the Christian point of view was extraordinarily beautiful, she possessing all the rights of her faith, having been a life-long member of St. Mary's Catholic church, of this city.

In passing, the deceased leaves behind to mourn her death one daughter, Miss Margaret M. Price, of this city, and two sons, Mr. Alfred L. Price, of Asheville, and Mr. Charles A. Price, of Wilmington. Mrs. Price was in her 63rd year, having been born May 18, 1853.

She had a host of friends and was much loved by them all. The sympathy of the community goes out for the bereaved relatives, who are left to mourn their beloved mother.

FUNERAL OF MR. BOWEN.

Interment at Catherine Lake Yesterday—Many Attend Services.

Accompanied by members of the family and friends, the remains of Rev. H. C. Bowen, who died at the home of his son in Norwood, Ohio, last Saturday afternoon, were taken to Catherine Lake in Onslow county on the early morning train yesterday. The body arrived in Wilmington Monday night.

The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. J. C. Caldwell, president of Atlantic Christian College, of Wilson, and were attended by a large number of friends of the deceased. The interment was in the family burying ground.

LIGHT COMMITTEE REPORTS

Rotary Club Goes on Record as Favoring Ten-Year Contract for New System for Wilmington.

At the meeting of the Wilmington Rotary Club last evening, the most interesting feature was a report from the committee appointed some weeks ago on the proposed new lighting system for the city, and which new system, it is expected, will very soon become a reality through the energetic efforts of this enterprising organization of young business men.

The committee last evening made a full report to the club, which was thoroughly discussed. The committee reported that by procuring a ten-year contract the city would be enabled to obtain 40 per cent. more candle power hours, with a modern and attractive system for the downtown section, and a much improved and a very adequate system for the residential and outlying business districts, at a reduction of about two per cent. of the cost of the present contract.

It was brought out by the committee that the present lighting system is costing the city $18,351. The proposed new system, which will light the same area as now covered by both gas and electricity, with higher candle power, at a cost of $18,000 per annum.

If a contract were made for a shorter time, say four instead of ten years, which was suggested, it would be necessary for the city to materially increase its yearly payments to $21,750 per annum. However, under the four-year plan, in the event of the renewal of the contract, there would be a proportionate reduction that would equalize the total payments to the ten-year basis.

The Rotary Club put itself on record as strongly endorsing the 10-year contract for the obvious reason that the four-year plan would necessitate an increase in the city budget.

The Rotary Club expressed itself in entire accord with the City Council in its efforts to reduce the budget at the present time.

The committee in charge of the lighting proposition for the club is composed of Messrs. S. M. Boatwright, chairman; W. D. MacMillan, Jr., R. Humphreys, Milton Calder, John R. Murshison, and Laurence Sprunt.

At the meeting last night President John R. Murchison presided and a record of the proceedings was kept by Mr. Meares Harriss, the secretary. A number of matters of interest were discussed, but definite action was deferred.

The club is losing none of its activities during the Summer months, and a number of important matters of community development may be announced a little later.

HIS SISTER DEAD.

Maj. W. H. Bernard Receives Sad Intelligence From South Carolina.

A telegram received Monday night brought to Maj. W. H. Bernard, of this city, the sad news of the death Monday at Wellford, S. C., of his sister, Mrs. Fannie Bernard Benson, wife of Mr. John M. Benson, who passed away after a long and lingering illness which she bora with great Christian fortitude. Surviving her are her husband and three daughters, Mrs. Virginia Devine, of Virginia, and Misses Florida and Caroline Benson, of South Carolina. Funeral services were held at Wellford yesterday.

Mrs. Benson was a native of Richmond, Va., but since her marriage had been a resident of South Carolina. She was a woman of strong mental fibre, highly educated, with varied accomplishments, including a thorough mastery of music. But the most beautiful trait of her character was her unselfish devotion not only to her own family, but to others. A devoted and dutiful wife, she idolized her children, over whom she exercised a fond mother's watchful care and imparted to them the same educational qualities which she enjoyed herself.

The death of Mrs. Benson leaves Major Bernard the last survivor of a family of ten members and in this bereavement he has the tenderest sympathy of a host of friends all over the State.

SERVICES AT ST. ANDREW'S.

Rev. A. W. Crawford, of Greensboro, Will Preach Tonight.

Rev. A. W. Crawford, of Greensboro, superintendent of Synodical Home Missions, of the Presbyterian Church, will be the guest of his friend, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, for several days. He will preach at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church tonight and also on Thursday and Friday evenings at 8:15 o'clock, preparatory to the Communion next Sunday morning. He will also speak to the Christian Endeavor Society and preach next Sunday evening.

The people of the city are invited to hear him and the members of the church are urged by their pastor to attend all these services. The session of the church will meet Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock to receive any who wish to join the church and to prepare for the Communion service.

SIDBURY GETS LICENSE.

Wilmington Man's Name Left Out of Published List.

Dr. J. B. Sidbury, of this city, received a license by reciprocity from New York to practice medicine in North Carolina at the recent session of the Board of Medical Examiners at Greensboro. Dr. H. A. Royster writes that his name was omitted by accident from the list that was handed out for publication and that they feel it only fair that this correction be made. Dr. Sidbury is a graduate of Columbia University, of New York City, and has spent the past three years there practicing in hospitals and as a resident physician. He made a special study of diseases of hildren while in the Foundlings' hospital.

BLOOM FROM EVERGREEN.

First From Cotton Fields on the 19th—Crops Are Very Fine.

Enclosing a red bloom, plucked from his fine fields of cotton, at Evergreen, Columbus county, on the 19th, Representative A. M. Benton, of that place, writes The Star that the cotton crops around Evergreen are very fine. The particular bloom sent by Mr. Benton was from cotton of the Ideal variety, which he says is the earliest cotton in the South.

From nearly everywhere in the Eastern Carolina belt come most encouraging reports of fine crops and if nothing occurs in the near future the 1915 crop will be made. It is safe to say, in this connection, that the crop now making will be one of the cheapest the South has grown in many years.

START PROBING INTO ELECTION MATTERS

Grand Jury to Examine Large Number of Witnesses

Began Investigation Yesterday Which Will Likely Continue for Several Days—Several Cases Tried in Superior Court.

More than one hundred citizens, including city officials and former city officials, have been summoned to appear before the grand jury at this term of Superior Court to testify regarding certain alleged recent violations of the election law. The grand jury practically finished up its other work yesterday and began yesterday afternoon making an investigation in accordance with the instructions of Judge Rountree in his charge Monday morning.

There were a number of witnesses examined yesterday afternoon and, while theexaminations were not public, it is understood that the testimony had special reference to the last municipal primary. There is a difference of opinion as to the probability of indictments being returned, some being of the opinion that there will, while others are equally sure that there will not be. It was hinted yesterday afternoon that certain city officials may be asked to make explanations regarding certain reports that have been going the rounds.

As explained by Judge Rountree in his charge to the grand jury, the present State law as well as the local laws bearing on elections are very strict and prohibit a candidate from spending an unusually large amount of money in his campaign or from spending any for which an accounting is not made to the County Board of Elections. The statute also makes it unlawful to promise an office in return for the support of a candidate. These and other matters will be probed by the grand jury, it is understood.

With such a large number of witnesses to examine it will likely take several days to complete the investigation. The matter will be gone into quite thoroughly and every effort made to get to the bottom of the persistent rumors that have been current on the streets for sometime.

Practically the entire day in Superior Court yesterday was taken up with the trial of the civil case of J. G. Wright & Son against the Kidder Lumber Company. At 5 o'clock, after having been out for a little more than an hour, the jury returned a verdict of $125 for the plaintiffs. The amount asked for by the plaintiff was $250, the commissions alleged to be due the plaintiff for the sale of a piece of property owned by the defendants. At the last term of court a verdict in favor of the defendant was returned, but was set aside by Judge Rountree and a new trial ordered. The plaintiff was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and Hon. John D. Bellamy and Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan appeared for the defendant.

William E. Wilson, John Bishop and Dewey Patterson, all colored, charged wit hthe larceny of a lot of jewelry from the home of John Goodwin, colored, were found guilty by the jury but judgment was not pronounced. C. W. Nixon, charged with embezzlement, was allowed to enter a plea of guilty to forcible trespass and prayer for judgment was continued until next term.

At 4 o'clock court took a recess until this morning. There are a number of cases for minor offenses which will likely be tried today.

WILMINGTON CONTINUES IN GRASP OF HEAT WAVE.

Weather Was Most Oppressive Last Night—No Change Forecasted.

Wilmington still continues to be in the grasp of a heat wave which makes living rather uncomfortable, especially for that large majority of humanity that earns its daily bread. The thermometer yesterday lacked one degree of being as high as the day before, registering only 93 degrees. Lst night at 8 o'clock it was 82 degrees, which, in the language of the streets, is some hot for this section.

The high humidity makes the heat exceedingly oppresive. Many new Palm Beach suits were seen yesterday and if the weather doesn't moderate soon there will be many others in evidence.

Observer Felger is doing his best, but holds out little hope for a moderation in temperature today. However, it can't last, say those who keep tab on things mteorological.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following deeds were filed for record yesterday: George Thomas Swain and sister, Erla Roberts Swain, to J. V. Death of Infant Son.

Friends will sympathize tenderly with Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hawkins in the death of their ten-months-old son, Jesse Lee, which occurred yesterday morning at 5:45 o'clock at their home No. 1003 North Sixth street. The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. G. W. McClanahan, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church. The remains were taken to Mars Bluff, S. C., yesterday afternoon for interment.

Safety+Quickness

"Safety First" must ever be the watchword in firearms. But safety must not be secured at the expense of quick action. The Colt Automatic Pistol combines the most dependable kind of safety—automatic safety—with instant firing.

The Colt can't be discharged accidentally, because the trigger must be pulled and the safety in the grip must be pressed in at the same instant and this can't be done except it is done purposely. So much for safety.

As for quickness, the Colt always gets there first, for in an emergency you don't have to bother with or think about the grip safety—it takes care of itself and you.

SAVE Money on COAL

Others are doing it by using Clinchfield, the coal that burns like a hickory back-log, slowly, steadily and with intense heat that radiates into every nook and corner of the room. If you have been throwing away your money on coals that burn up like shavings, wasting their heat in a long flame up the chimney and in dense smoke and troublesome soot, try Clinchfield this season and note the big saving and bigger satisfaction.

Clinchfield is hard, clean, lumpy, easily kindled and holds fire over night, saving labor and kindling bills. By far the most economical and satisfactory fuel for open grates, stoves and residence furnaces of all types. No trouble from clinkers and choked flues.

Leading railways, cotton mills and factories have tested all kinds of coal. They prefer Clinchfield because it delivers more heat for less money. Follow their lead. Write today for literature, freight rate and low summer prices on cars of from 30 to 50 tons each direct from the mines.

MAJOR STEDMAN HERE
AMONG OLD FRIENDS.

The presence in his old home, even for a brief period, of the Hon. Charles M. Stedman, Representative in Congress from the Fifth District, has evoked many expressions of pleasure from his numerous friends. The warm and hearty greetings he received from many sources yesterday made him realize that he had not been forgotten by the associates of his younger manhood.

Major Stedman will leave for Greensboro Friday, stopping over a day or two in Fayetteville with his brother, Mr. Frank H. Stedman. Major Stedman's daughter, Mrs. Kate Palmer, and little granddaughter, Miss Katherine Palmer, will probably remain here until the early part of next week. Major Stedman is enjoying perfect health.

HAPPY REUNION OF ALUMNI

Prof. Washington Catlett Honored by Former Students of Cape Fear Academy.

More than 50 former students of Cape Fear Academy met at the Y. M. C. A. last night at the dinner given in honor of Prof. Washington Catlett, for 38 years principal of this well known school. The occasion was a most enjoyable one from every standpoint. Rev. Andrew J. Howell acted as toastmaster and following the banquet a number of the alumni made short addresses in which they spoke feelingly of the splendid work done by Professor Catlett and of the former associations in the school.

A permanent organization of the alumni of the school was effected with the following officers: President, Rev. Andrew J. Howell; vice-president, Mr. Joe Jacobi; secretary, Mr. E. H. Munson; treasurer, Mr. J. Holmes Davis.

Professor Catlett was presented with a handsome token of regard by the alumni, the presentation being made by Louis Goodman, Esq. He responded with an address in which he expressed his gratitude for the love and esteem of his former students.

Prof. Reston Stevenson, now a member of the faculty of Columbia University, a former student of the school, was present, and made a short address.

Others who spoke were:

Messrs. J. S. Brown, Norwood Smith, J. Herbert Johnson, R. A. Parsley, Clayton Giles, Jr., George Peschau, J. VanB. Metts, L. D. Latta and T. W. Davis.

Telegrams and letters were read from Mr. Wm. A. Law, now president of the First National Bank of Philadelphia, and Alfred M. Scales, Esq., of Greensboro, former assistants to Professor Catlett in the school, and Messrs. M. J. Griffith, of Portsmouth; Will Latta, Philadelphia, and D. L. Latta and I. W. Solomon, of Wilmington.

MUCH INTEREST IN BEACH CHATAUQUA

cipitated the stupendous war has its greatest tragedy to the European people, in the complete abandonment of hope instead of the vast loss of life and property, which is also a stupendous affair.

America's Opportunity.

America has the chance never before offered any country on the globe. Her ocean barriers protect her from invasion. The cosmopolitan nature of her population insures a broader people. Her government, founded on democratic principles gives the citizenship the greatest opportunity to make of themselves as individuals. Europe's inability to unite herself as one people because of past hatreds and refusal to grow into each other, takes away her chance at the proud position. Despair has already settled in all Europe as it is already known that none of the three great nations can ever win the goal of their hopes. "Bryan and Wilson," says Dr. White, "are not opposing each other, they are working for the same end and opposing the spirit of going to war and wasting our natural strength that may be needed in the near future."

Dr. White's evening and last lecture on "Sydney Lanier, the Christian Poet," would require his personality to back his words, to give any idea of the lecture. Those present thought it one of the most inspiring they have ever heard. Dr. White is a man of great force and expression. His presence in Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach is something to be proud of and that would be of vastly more value to the city, if the citizens only knew what is in their midst.

City Council at a special meeting Monday afternoon arranged to borrow an additional $50,000 from a New York banking house. The rate is to be 3 1-2 per cent. This will make $100,000 to be borrowed by the city recently to be used in tiding over the summer months.

DIED.

PRICE—At her home in this city, June 22nd, 1915, at 2 P. M., MRS. MARY A. PRICE, widow of the late Charles A. Price, of Wilmington, aged 62 years, one month.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Registered at the Hanover Inn are: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson, of Raynes; Miss Mary Mears, Franklinville; Chas. Armond, Andrews; W. B. Padgett, Newbern.

Mrs. Brown Shepherd gave a delightful sailing party on board the launch Atlanta yesterday afternoon complimentary to Misses Mary Hoke, Harriet Barker, Catherine and Elizabeth Baker, of Raleigh, all guests of Miss Lillias Shepherd at her cottage on the beach.

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer: "Mrs. R. B. Raney and children, Margaret, Beverly and Katherine, left yesterday morning for Wrightsville Beach, where they will probably spend the summer.——Mr. Carey J. Hunter, Miss Ethel Marshall and Miss Margaret Hunter left yesterday for Wrightsville to attend the Baptist Seaside Chautauqua."

The Texas Quartette was given an ovation at Lumina last night when it made its appearance. The solo by Mr. Hagerty, "Billowy Sea," and a comedy song, "Rheumatiz," by Mr. Richardson, as well as the other selections by the quartette made a most favorable impression and the large crowd at the pavilion was greatly pleased. The quartette will sing again at Lumina this afternoon and tonight.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mrs. John Walter Miller, of New York, arrived in the city Sunday morning and is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Charles C. Hook, at her home on East Morehead street. Mrs. Miller will leave the first of July for Wrightsville Beach to spend two weeks. She will be accompanied by her attractive niece, Miss Margaret Cowles. ——Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Alexander and children, Thomas W., Jr., Frank Spruill and Alice will leave Thursday for Wrightsville Beach to spend two weeks or more."

The intensely hot weather these days is driving hundreds and hundreds of people to the seashore, seeking relief from the torridity, in the cooling ocean breezes. The heat is also beginning to drive people from the interior oceanward and vacations tentatively planned are now becoming realities as the summer comes on apace. According to the weekly weather forecast issued yesterday in Washington fair, hot weather will predominate during the coming week. For the South Atlantic States especially fair weather with continued high temperature is predicted for the next week or ten days and this is expected to have a marked effect on the daily increasing travel just now.

Lumina is becoming increasingly attractive for the little folks and each day witnesses a number of the tots enjoying the cooling breezes and other attractions at this premier pavilion for all the people. In recognition of the increasing patronage by parents with children, who frequently go to the beach to spend the day with them, the management has provided the free use of tables for family parties, while at a convenient lunch counter, supplies such as hot coffee, milk, sandwiches, etc., may be had at a very moderate cost. During the afternoon the orchestra plays and during this week the Texas Quartette, which is filling an engagement at Lumina sings several numbers each afternoon. Many of those who go down afternoons remain over for the evening to enjoy dancing and free moving pictures and other diversions.

SEMINOLE VISITS RESORT.

Anchored Last Night Off Wrightsville Beach—Searching for Derelict.

The coast guard cutter Seminole, which left her dock here Monday to search for a schooner, reported by the Matilda Weems as upside down off the coast between the Cape Fear and Neuse river bars, was anchored last night off Wrightsville beach. The derelict, had not been sighted up to last night but the search will be continued today. Lieut. Scott is in command of the cutter, Capt. P. H. Uberroth being ashore on sick leave.

The cutter anchored last night off Wrightsville Beach just opposite the Carolina Yacht Club. During the evening the large searchlight was brought into play and served to lend an additional interest to beach visitors. Mr. W. B. Shuler, who is in charge of Lumina pavilion, thought perhaps the signals were for drinks but was not sure just what kind, though in view of Secretary of the Navy Daniels' recent activities concluded that it must be grape juice.

—Mr. Wm. E. Springer left yesterday evening for Raleigh to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of the North Carolina Methodist Orphanage.

URGES CITY TO GET BUSY ON PLAYGROUNDS.

Government Has Put Matter Up to Wilmington—Time for Action.

To the Editor of The Star:

In today's paper under the following head "Boy sent to County Farm," was the statement that Deenes Williabs, a boy under 13 years of age, had been sentenced to the county farm by the Recorder for 18 months, for an assault with a deadly weapon.

In the News and Observer of June 6th, occurred the following: "The playgrounds have kept the children out of the police court to such an extent that there has not been a single case against a white boy in the last six months," said Judge W. C. Harriss at a meeting of the City Commissioners recently. "I have noticed that boys who were notorious characters on the streets until the playgrounds came are now either playing on them or in school. The playgrounds have been instrumental in saving many a boy from the stigma of a case in city court, and when a boy once becomes an offender he is pretty apt to lose that fear that he has ordinarily, which makes every boy afraid of an officer and which keeps him out of trouble when he is otherwise inclined."

In these two paragraphs are food for much thought, also a clarion call to every man and woman in our community. Our first duty as citizens is to our children; and unless we see to it that every chance is offered them to become clean, law-abiding men and women we have signally failed in our duty and buried our talents. "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not," is just as imperative a command today as when given by the Divine Master nearly two thousand years ago; and we, unless we do all in our power to give the children a chance for full, free development of body, brain and morals are surely among those who "forbid."

Nearly 18 months ago, through concerted action we secured from the government the gift of nearly two city blocks, in the heart of the city, to be used as a public playground for white children of the city.

Now the government in return asked that the city do two things. Put Eighth street in good condition so that the United States Marine Hospital authorities can use it from Orange street to the hospital, instead of having to go by Nun as they now have to do; put a wire fence along the boundary line between the hospital and the playground. So far neither the fence has been placed, or the road made. (Apropos the United States Government has promised to lay a concrete pavement from the hospital to Ann street when Eighth street is fixed, but not until.)

Now can't we get our City Fathers to fulfil these conditions at once, and continue by getting the grounds ready so our children may use them?

The committee appointed by the Mayor has selected plans for the grounds that are feasible and of moderate costs still they contain plans for every child, from the nearly grown boys and girls to the tiny tots with their nurses.

Can't we all pull together on this matter, and after the city has put the grounds in order, those of us who love the children contribute something towards equipping it, and thus have our memorial to Bishop Strange continue the work he labored so faithfully and lovingly for: "The preservation of Wilmington's boys and girls from lives of evil to those of usefulness."

ONCE LEADING BUSINESS DISTRICT

Site of Proposed Customs House Being Torn Away—Old landmarks.

As work was begun yesterday morning to tear away the old buildings to prepare the site for the new customs house soon to be under construction, a Wilmington citizen remarked that no more than 20 years ago that was the leading business block in the city. The removal of these old buildings means the removing of old landmarks, the sentimental side of which calls forth many remarks by older people.

When the work was actually begun there was about 200 workmen on hand asking for employment. Some were turned away because there was not room to give them all jobs.

LIQUIDATION IN COTTON

Combined Developments Cause Rather a Lot of Selling on Market But Later Firmed Up.

New York, June 22.—A favorable view of crop weather conditions and apprehensions of July notices next Friday, caused rather a lot of liquidation, but rallies followed quite a sharp break in prices with the close firm, net one point to three points higher.

Liverpool made a fairly steady showing and the market here opened steady at an advance of 3 to 8 points. Stop orders carried prices about 8 to 10 points net lower with October contracts selling at 9.66, or at the lowest point reached since that position sold at 10 cents earlier in the month. Offerings then tapered off and the market rallied some 9 or 10 points from the lowest on covering by early sellers and reports that domestic or Canadian mills had been good buyers on the decline below 9.75 for October.

Exports today 5,754; so far this season 8,062,835; port receipts 10,840; United States port stocks 899,477.

Detailed weather reports showed generally clearer conditions in the South with traders predicting a favorable weekly review tomorrow.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Heavier Trading and Wider Fluctuations Mark Yesterday's Market.

New Orleans, June 22.—Heavier trading and wider fluctuations featured the cotton market today. Sentiment was more two-sided than it has been recently and prices were carried both above and below the close of yesterday, although last prices were about unchanged, October being the only exception and it stood only one point up.

In the early trading prices were carried 1 to 3 points over yesterday's finals. The good weather over the belt was against values and the market quickly reacted. Around noon the market stood at a net decline of 1-3 a dozen points and in the early afternoon was at is lowest, a net loss of 6 to 8 points. Shorts took profits on a generous scale and the ring could not meet the inquiry with the result that a sharp spurt was brought about which put the tradings four points over last figures. This was the highest of the day. Along with better accounts from the interior came reports of easier spots and freer offerings which induced much liquidation of long cotton.

Spot cotton easy, unchanged; middling, 9.00; sales on the spot 275 bales, to arrive 470.

Cotton futures closing: July, 9.07; October, 9.51; December, 9.72; January, 9.83; March, 10.07.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

New York, June 22. — Active liquidation developed in cotton seed oil today, owing to bearish cotton crop news, a poor consuming trade and local pressure. Shorts and refining interests bought on the decline. The close was at new low levels for the season, and four to six points under last night.

Sales, 20,500 barrels.

The market closed steady. Spot, 5.95@6.25; June, 6.00@6.18; July, 6.08@6.10; August, 6.24@6.26; September, 6.41@6.42; October, 6.42@6.44; November, 6.41@6.44; December, 6.43@6.45; January, 6.46@6.48. Total sales, 20,500.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

Liverpool, June 22. — Cotton, spot, easier; good middling, 553; middling, 523; low middling, 477; sales, 10,000; for speculation and export, 1,000; receipts, 17,000. Futures, barely steady. AN IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENT

Announcement Made That Arrangements Completed for Placing Large French Loan in This Country.

New York, June 22.—The most important davelopment of the day was the announcement made toward the close of the stock market that arrangements had been completed for the placing of a French loan in this country, backed by the Rothschilds. Although definite details were lacking, the news was of sufficient interest to bring about a general recovery of quoted values from their early irregularity, leaving a number of net gains. Foreign war conditions were responsible for the initial heaviness and contrary movements.

Coal stocks showed no further effect of yesterday's decision of the United States Supreme Court. That class of railway issues designated as trunk lines was strong, presumably as a result of Zaltimore & Ohio's statement of earnings for May, which disclosed a net increase of $1,247,000. Coppers were under intermittent pressure. United States Steel was again the active feature, but its range was narrow and without material net change.

Firmness ruled in bonds regardless of recurrent foreign offerings. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,378,000. U. S. bonds reg. 4s declined 1-4 per cent on call.

THE COTTON SITUATION.

Market Quiet; Undertone Firm, Says Henry Clews & Company.

As was to be expected, owing to the continued steady European demand for cotton, exports during the week crossed the 5,000,000-bale mark, and are now within striking distance of last year's figures. Indications are that the foreign demand will continue, Manchester manufacturers are said to be short of cotton for yarn and cloth orders already booked, so that the increased English spinners' takings of spots will probably make up for the small shipments to Germany, owing to the embargo. The Census Bureau report published during the week showed consumption of cotton exclusive of linters during May of 494,000 against 467,000 bales a year ago. Quite a little attention was again directed to the usage of linters during the past month, the total being given as 44,000 against 27,000 bales in May last year. Since August 1st cotton consumption has amounted to 4,851,000 bales against 4,990,000 bales a year ago, linters included. Stocks in private warehouses are liberal, and by some this was construed as a bearish factor. There is, however, another way of looking at it. It indicates a tendency to accumulate the staple by manufacturing interests, and certainly they would not add to their stocks unless they either considered cotton cheap or that their future business warranted such a procedure. The most talked of recent development was the revised estimate of the Department of Agriculture of last year's acreage. The preliminary estimate issued July 1st last year made the total planted area 36,960,000 acres, while the revised figures fixed the total at 37,406,000 acres. The department, in issuing this report, calls attention to the fact that its forthcoming acreage figures for 1915 will be compared with the revised figures of 1914. This is very important in its bearing upon the expected reduction. Recent private estimates of acreage reduction have naturally been compared with last year's official acreage. These, of course, now need revision. The "Financial Chronicle" in this week's issue will publish its estimate of cotton acreage and it is understood that the figures will show a decrease of 10.86 per cent. This by many in the trade will be considered low, but assuming that it is approximately correct, an acreage around 33,000,000 will be indicated. It will be recalled that on such an acreage in the past we have raised some pretty good crops, but the fast must not be forgotten that then fertilizers were plentifully used, while this year the curtailment will probably run between 40 and 50 per cent. Weather and the majority of reports bearing on the progress of the crop are favorable, but the critical growing period is now directly ahead of us and it must be expected that many adverse reports will emanate from the belt as the season progresses. The undertone of the market is firm so that it is natural to anticipate that reports from new on of excessive temperatures or too much rain will be followed by an uplift in prices. HENRY CLEWS & CO.

New York, June 19, 1915.

THAT PENDER HOMICIDE.

Further Details of the Killing of Moore by Devane.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., June 22. — Regarding the homicide at Long Creek last week, in which a negro named Moore was shot and killed by another negro named Devane, it now appears that Moore had faced Devane at the point of a pistol to pay him $1.50 that he claimed Devane owed him, and it was for this that he vowed vengeance against Moore. They both came from Wilmington on the same train and, while Devane went into a store at Montague to buy the buck shot shells, Moore made tracks for Long Creek village, and, fearing Devane, he hid in the swamps beyond the village, thus allowing Devane to enter the village first, thinking no doubt that Devane would not carry out his threat in the village, but in this he was mistaken, as Devane is said to have fired on him as soon as he saw him. Moore had a pistol and fired it about the time Devane fired, but it is not believed that Devane was hit.

COURT OF INQUIRY IS LEARNING MUCH

Damaging Evidence Given Against Recent Graduate.

AT THE NAVAL ACADEMY

Witness Tells of Thefts Committed by Midshipmen Before Those in the Present Charge—Didn't Want to Testify.

Annapolis, Md., June 22.—Damaging testimony was given today against Ralph McK. Nelson, of Peekskill, N. Y., who stood third in the class that graduated from the Naval Academy last month, and who has been recommended for dismissal by Superintendent Fullam for alleged cheating in an examination.

Nelson was accused of having stolen papers, other than those referred to in the original charge, by Midshipman James E. Waddell, called as a witness today before the court of inquiry, investigating irregularities in examination papers.

The witness said that on one occasion when he and Nelson had surreptitiously entered the department of marine engineering to look at the private card index containing their marks, he saw Nelson take from a desk some sheets on which were problems to be worked out in turbine engines.

Waddell, who was a member of the former third class, was brought into the case by the testimony of Ensign I. M. Graham, who told of revelations he claimed Waddell had made to him last week. When Graham informed Waddell he intended for the honor of the Academy, to tell the court of this conversation, Waddell said, according to Graham, that if he did so, he would deny it.

Unwilling to Testify.

Today Waddell testified that he had told Graham he was unwilling to go before the court of inquiry for two reasons—it would incriminate several other men, and result in his dismissal. Nelson had sent word to him, Waddell said, that he had heard Waddell was going to testify against him, and Nelson threatened to "get him" if he did so.

"I wrote a letter to Nelson," said Waddell, "as near as I can remember, as follows:

"'Graham wishes me to go before some sort of honor committee and testify against you. I will not do this because it would incriminate several others. You have nothing to fear from anything I would say. Reagle, Keller and I have agreed to forget everything.'

Waddell told of four expeditions to the engineering department to look up his marks.

On one of the expeditions Waddell said he found some old drawings which he later threw away as being of no use to him. He said he had done nothing that had not been done by others many times. He mentioned Ensign Strubel, one of the defendants as one who had received 25 demerits for the offense.

bent were for Samuel McHorney.

The New Hanover fight was introduced by Representative W. P. Stacy, who told of the row he and Senator Cooper had in the General Assembly and then went into the merits of the case. He told of J. O. Carr's standing in Wilmington, his interest in the schools and what he had done for popular education. Mr. Stacy said that the county would have lost Mr. Carr's services but for the fight made on him by Senator Cooper, but declared that Mr. Carr is not the kind of man to run under fire and was sticking to see the thing out. Former Senator Marsden Bellamy, C. C. Covington, W. H. Sprunt and J. A. Taylor made speeches in favor of Mr. Carr. They all believed that the people were overwhelmingly in favor of his retention.

During Senator Cooper's argument against Mr. Carr, Mr. Taylor arose and declared that the senator was trying to make charges by innuendo and insinuation and asked the board to stop it. And the board called the senator to the proprieties. He had been intimating that Mr. Carr's prominence as a lawyer and his retention by several of the gentlemen present was responsible for their zeal in his behalf. There was no doubt in the minds of the Wilmington men that Mr. Carr would be re-appointed.

MEMORANDUM FROM ENGLAND IS ON WAY

Explaining Efforts to Mitigate Shipping Hardships.

WILL HAVE NO EFFECT

Note Prepared at Washington for Dispatch to England Will Be Sent Regardless of Memorandum Given Ambassador.

London, June 22.—The foreign office delivered to Ambassador Page for transmission to Washington a memorandum explanatory of efforts being made by the British government to mitigate the hardships suffered by neutral traders on account of the orders in council and other war measures affecting their interests.

The memorandum, although not a reply to the American contraband notes, gives a summary of the measures adopted by Great Britain with the purpose of enforcing, with as little friction as possible, her policy of shutting off Germany from the rest of the world. The foreign office sets forth methods whereby neutrals may trade without coming into conflict with these regulations.

The text of the note will not be published here until it is given out in Washington.

NOTE GOES REGARDLESS.

Washington Will Not Alter Course Because of Memorandum Coming.

Washington, June 22.—The memorandum of the British foreign office summarizing measures adopted to alleviate difficulties to neutral traders under the order in council will not, it is understood, effect the sending of the note to Great Britain now in preparation. This communication is to reiterate the American protest against the illegality of the principles in the order in council.

While the measures which are understood to be outlined in the British memorandum are aimed to correct troubles experienced by Americans in their trade with neutral countries the United States insisted in the note of March 30—its last communication on the subject—that England had no right under international law to stop noncontraband goods of America ownership passing to and from Gremany through neutral countries, a blockade being held as effective only against a belligerent coast itself.

DID WASHINGTON HINT TO THE BRITISH LION?

ed from Manchuria probably to the relief of Great Britain, which never has desired Japanese participation in the fighting in Europe."

NO COMMENT AT WASHINGTON.

Officials Listen to Story from The Hague in Silence.

Washington, June 22.—Government officials tonight heard without comment of the article published in the Handelsblad asserting that an unofficial hint from Washington to London blocked plans by Japan for sending an expedition of 300,000 men to Europe to participate in the European war.

It is known there were exchanges between the American and British governments while the recent Japanese-Chinese negotiations were in progress, but their nature was kept secret and officials are not inclined now to discuss what took place at that critical period.

The United States knew that Japan had at least 100,000 men in Manchuria when she was waiting for China's reply. It was generally understood here, however, that the army was there for effect upon China and to be ready for actual service in event of a rupture between Tokio and Peking.

All reports from Tokio have indicated that Japan has not been called on for a European expedition and has not considered sending one. The situation in the Far East, as well as the condition of Japan's treasury has been regarded as making such a development unlikely now, at least.

consideration which require unusual demands upon the military, it would appear logical for the few Americans who have remained in Yaqui valley to depart and not place their lives in jeopardy, rather than plunge two friendly nations into disagreement.'

"'However, every guarantee will be given in an endeavor to afford Americans in question ample protection and if emergencies should require them to depart an adequate escort will be furnished them. Fifteen hundred Mexican troops are now available for this protection and General Sosa is now in the valley to command these troops.

"'And, whereas that military commandant and his officers would understand that a landing would be made under only the most urgent necessity, and only for the protection of American lives, yet the masses might misinterpret the action and resist it, and undoubtedly some Indians would join their Indian brothers and, furthermore, such action might cause Americans trouble all along the coast."

PEACE RUMORS A MISTAKE.

No Russian Emissaries in Berlin for Purpose of Talking Terms.

Frankfort, Germany, June 22, via London.—The Frankfurter Zeitung publishes an inspired article from Berlin denying positively rumors which are being circulated in certain quarters of Berlin that negotiations are under way looking to the conclusion of peace with Russia.

According to these rumors, Russian emissaries of high birth visited Berlin and the headquarters at the front. These reports even mentioned the conditions under which it was said Russia wished to make peace.

The Berlin correspondent of the Zeitung says he is in a position to state there is not a word of truth in these reports; that no Russian emissaries of any sort have visited Berlin.

"BRIDES IN BATH" CASE BEING TRIED IN LONDON

Sensational Murder Trial is Begun—Circumstances.

Three Women, All Married to One Man and All Found Murdered in Bath Tubs Under Almost Identical Circumstances.

London, June 22.—George Joseph Smith was placed on trial for his life in Old Bailey today. He is charged with the murder of three women with all of whom he went through the marriage ceremony and all of whom were found dead in bath tubs under almost identical circumstances.

The case has come to be known throughout the kingdom as the "brides in bath" case and promises to be the most sensational murder trial here since that of Dr. Crippen.

The proceedings today consisted of the selection of a jury and the opening address of the prosecutor who related the circumstances of the deaths of Smith's wives, Beatrice Mundy, Alice Burnham and Margaret Lofty.

Notwithstanding the interest in the case the court was not crowded today, although among the spectators were several prominent personages.

Details of the brides' deaths as related by Prosecutor Bodkin disclosed that Smith, under the name of John Lloyd, married Margaret Lofty at Bath, in November, 1914. The couple came to London the same day and the next morning the bride was found dead in her bath. A verdict of accidental death was returned.

Later it was asserted by the police that Lloyd was not the husband's name and he was arrested and identified, according to the police, as George Joseph Smith, who in November, 1913, had married at Portsmouth Alice Burnham. She had been found dead in her bath a month after the ceremony. His marriage to Beatrice Mundy in July, 1912, also was traced.

The prosecutor declared that the motive for the alleged murders was greed for money which Smith would obtain from insurance on the women's lives. In this way, said the prosecutor, Smith had obtained $14,000 and was in a fair way to obtain $3,500 more when arrested.

THAW JURY COMPLETE DEFENDANT CONFIDENT

Trial Marks Seventh Attempt to Secure Freedom.

If Jury Decides in Favor of Thaw and Justice on Bench Upholds Decision, Defendant Will be Free Forever.

New York, June 22.—Harry K. Thaw's seventh attempt to gain his freedom since his arrest nine years ago, for the murder of Stanford White, was begun here today with the selection of a jury to inquire as to his sanity.

"If the jurors decide in Thaw's favor and Justice Henrick presiding, who has the power to reverse their verdict, accepts it, Thaw will obtain permanent release from the Matteawan Insane Asylum. The selection of the jury occupied the entire session of the court but its completion in one day was recorded as rapid progress when compared with the long time it took to fill the jury box on the two previous occasions on which Thaw has faced a jury.

Tomorrow the taking of testimony will begin. Thaw has about 50 witnesses, including a number of allenists, to prove that he now is sane and entitled to his freedom. The state has a large number to testify against him.

Thaw said he was entirely satisfied with the jury.

"They are an intelligent body of men," he said, "and I will have little difficulty in convincing them that I am as sane as they are."

Thaw appeared to be in high spirits and frequently joked with newspaper men.

Crowds thronged the corridors of the court room all day seeking admission, but were told that no spectators would be admitted while the selection of the jury was going on.

BUILDING AND LOAN LEAGUE CONVENES IN ASHEVILLE

Several Addresses Heard Yesterday Afternoon and Evening.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., June 22. — The twelfth annual session of the North Carolina Building and Loan League convened in this city this afternoon with the largest attendance in the history of the organization. President E. L. Keesler, of Charlotte, presided at the sessions of the day, and following the exchange of greetings, the members of the organization heard interesting addresses dealing with the work in which they are engaged.

N. Buckner, of Asheville, delivered the address of welcome and the response was made by H. N. Pharr, of Charlotte. Speakers of the afternoon and evening sessions included Captain A. B. Brenizer, of Charlotte; R. E. Corcoran, of Charlotte; T. A. Adams, of Charlotte; Julius C. Martin, of Asheville; and W. E. Sharpe, of Burlington.

The speakers emphasized the importance of co-operation between the managing officers and the stockholders, and emphasis was placed on the importance of attending the annual sessions of the League.

Reports showed that the past year has been one of great benefit and that the building and loan associations throughout the State have grown in membership.

To Block Market Street Road.

Tarvia will be placed today on the market street road leading from the city limits through East Wilmington and this stretch of highway will be blocked to traffic until the work is completed. The public is requested to bear this in mind.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 22.—The Indian statute under which the indictments were returned, differs from the Federal provisions which permitted trial of all the Terre Haute defendants at one time. Attorneys for Mayor Bell said tonight that the indicted men have the right to demand separate trials.
